

HALUK I. ERGIN

Washington University in St. Louis
Department of Economics
Campus Box 1208
St. Louis, MO 63130-4899

Phone: 314-935-6736
Fax: 314-935-4156
hergin@artsci.wustl.edu
<http://artsci.wustl.edu/~hergin>

Date: July 2009.

Education: Princeton University, Ph.D., Economics, 2003.
Bilkent University, M.S., Mathematics, 1999.
Bogazici University, B.A., Business Administration, 1996.

Employment: 2007-present Associate Professor, Washington University in St. Louis, Dept. Economics.
2006-2007 Visiting Assistant Professor, Washington University in St. Louis, Dept. Economics.
2003-2007 Assistant Professor, MIT, Dept. Economics.

Publications:

“Framing Contingencies,” with David Ahn, July 2009, conditionally accepted at Econometrica.

“A Theory of Subjective Compound Lotteries,” with Faruk Gul, Journal of Economic Theory, 144(3), May 2009, 899-929.

“What's the Matter with Tie-breaking? Improving Efficiency in School Choice,” with Aytek Erdil, American Economic Review, 98(3), June 2008, 669-689.

“Games of School Choice under the Boston Mechanism,” with Tayfun Sonmez, Journal of Public Economics, 90(1-2), January 2006, 215-237.

“Efficient Resource Allocation on the Basis of Priorities,” Econometrica, 70(6), November 2002, 2489-2497.

“Consistency in House Allocation Problems,” Journal of Mathematical Economics, 34(1), August 2000, 77-97.

Working Papers:

“A Unique Costly Contemplation Representation,” with Todd Sarver, July 2009.

“A Subjective Model of Temporal Preferences,” with Todd Sarver, June 2009.

“An Extension and Application of Mazur’s Theorem,” with Todd Sarver, March 2008.

“Two-Sided matching with Indifferences,” with Aytok Erdil, September 2006.

“Costly Contemplation,” December 2003.

Grants, Fellowships, and Honors:

NSF Grant, “A Subjective Model of Temporal Preferences,” w/Todd Sarver, 2009-2011.

Alfred P. Sloan Research Fellow, 2008-2010.

NSF Grant, “Models of Unawareness and Ambiguity,” w/David Ahn, 2006-2009.

Invited to the Review of Economic Studies Tour, 2003.

Editorial Activities:

Associate Editor, Econometrica, 2008-2011.

Associate Editor, Theoretical Economics, 2009-2012.