[†]Approved for Anthropology, IAS, and/or Environmental Studies majors only

“After living in Beijing and hearing about China’s many social problems from my language partner, I realized that I wanted to work in a capacity that would actually help people, rather than take advantage of their economic situation. I have continued to work with non-profit organizations and NGOs since my experiences abroad and I am now applying for graduate school in International Public Health and Nutrition.”

-Alyssa Moran, '08, Duke-In-China

Basic Study Abroad Requirements

Approved programs were chosen for their high academic quality and suitability for the curriculum and educational priorities of Washington University.

You must have a minimum 3.0 GPA.*

In order to earn WU credit for summer programs, you must apply through the Overseas Programs office. Exceptions are listed in the box on the right.

Check with the Study Abroad Advisor in your department or on the “Choose by Interest” drop-down menu on the Overseas Programs website if you wish to receive major/minor credit.

You may petition to participate in an alternative program if you have a compelling academic reason and strong support of your major advisor(s). You may also petition for general credit. See the Overseas Programs office for details.

*Some programs have higher GPA requirements.
